Farm fries today

Today, Farm Frites is still a privately owned family company. We craft over 1.5 million tons of potatoes each year into delicious fries and potato specialties, serving them to foodservice entrepreneurs in 100+ countries worldwide. Our team has grown to over 1,600 colleagues working across five manufacturing facilities and 43 global sales offices. Every day, we strive to improve, support our partners' success and contribute to a greener planet.

Our mission

We are committed to fulfilling our customers' long- term needs by serving the tastiest potato products and solutions tailored to the global foodservice market

We are Farm Frites, a key player in the potato processing industry. For many decades, we have been a trusted partner for foodservice entrepreneurs, providing them with delicious fries, potato specialties, and appetizers, and more.

Our history

Founded in 1971 as an independent family business, Farm Frites emerged from a passion for potato cultivation and crafting quality fries. Over the past five decades, this passion has driven our growth into a global enterprise.
